

Principles of Developing Community Engagement in Higher Education

Saturday: 2nd of June, 2011
Time: 11:45 – 13:15

Facilitates: Dr. Elizabeth Beck
Georgia State University

Description

Using practice knowledge, theory, and critical theory, this workshop will explore teaching and learning strategies that support effective community engagement; such that communities, students, and the university derive benefit.

The goal of the workshop is to support civic engagement that is strengths-based, emancipatory, and empowering for community and students.

Skills include

- Understanding one's own values and prejudices
- Identifying and utilizing assets
- Critical reflection
- Critical analysis
- Evaluation