Project's Abstract:

Many companies suffer from problems when offering a job, as hundreds of people apply for one job even if they do not match the required requirements, and this takes a long time when filtering the CVs by human resources.

JobsHub is a application that deals companies and people who are looking for job .

The application allows the user to create a CV and print the CV and they can add posts about their achievements and they can see other people's posts. and there are also companies in our application, they have an account on the site and also they can advertise job vacancy then jobs appear on their company page and they can see people whose applying for jobs, filter the CV, also people can communicate with companies through messages.
