

Toe-Tac-Tic (X-O Game Solving Robot)

This summary provides an overview." O and X is an advanced and intelligent device designed to play and solve the X-O game, also known as on the innovative features, functions and potential applications of this wonderful automated system.

Features included in the project

Border drawing mode

Custom mode allows users to easily define game boundaries, ensuring accurate gameplay setup

Multiple difficulty levels

Players can choose from a range of difficulty levels, allowing the game to be customized to their skill level

and their virtue

Audio Guidelines

for gamers, enhancing their understanding of the game's dynamics

Voice guidance provides useful guidance.

Consultation Mechanism

at their skill level, delivering a personalized gaming experience

The system advises the intelligence of the players about the most suitable situation for us

View Results

There is a mechanism to display game results efficiently, enabling players to quickly evaluate their performance.

Scan with camera

Using a camera, the system scans the grid on the gamepad, allowing an accurate interpretation of the game's progress.

Integration of a three-dimensional printer

The project uses a three-dimensional printer with a pen to accurately transmit computer movements to the actual gamepad, which

Ensures an experience