

CarHub : is platform designed to simplify and optimize the process of finding garages, car dealerships, car rent offices and car parts shops . By integrating a robust database of car information, this project empowers on make it easy to find car dealerships, car rent offices, garages and car parts shops

This will not only enhance competitiveness but also promote diversity within the transportation sector, ultimately making it easier for customers to achieve their objectives.

Features:

- Dealership Agencies: CarHub hosts a vast database of dealerships agencies, including cars for sale, cars for rent, and car parts shops. Users can search for any of these based on various criteria like location, type of cars, maintenance type etc .
- Rental Agencies: In addition to cars for sale, CarHub features rental agencies, including cars. Users can search for rentals in their preferred locations.
- - Map-Based Carhub Search: Users will have the ability to perform a map-based search for available garages, dealerships, rental offices, and auto parts shops using locations, addresses, or landmarks..
- Service Information: Users can access information about fixing services available for cars, including maintenance, repairs, and detailing.

- Customer Alerts: Users can set up custom alerts to receive notifications when cars required for buying or renting are available or some garages isn't full etc.
- Mobile Apps: CarHub offers mobile apps for iOS and Android devices, allowing users to access car parts , cars for rent and dealerships information, search for cars for selling or buying, and receive alerts on their mobile devices.